

History on Film, Film on History

- The course familiarises a student with the perception of history through a film that is the most powerful factor in the creation of the historical public awareness.
- The films are chosen to present a complex view on the chosen historical phenomenon (i. g. reformation, WW1, etc.)
- For this semester: Jesuits in film

