

Ancient Greek Language: Intermediate Level

KKF/RJ3 Instructor: Dr. Florin Leonte

This course is designed to help students further develop the skills for reading Ancient Greek texts: pronunciation, reading, and morphology. Participants will learn not only to analyze linguistic information but also to acquire knowledge about the Ancient Greek civilization and to place it in context. The focus will be on the most common form of Classical Greek, the language used by the textual masterpieces of the Hellenic world.