

Programme

Agents of Transformation

Women and the Making of Late Medieval Economies

Department of History, Palacký University Olomouc
Na Hradě 5, Room 2.10

Source for cover: Balthasar Behem Codex, Krakow, 1505, BJ Rkp.16, fol. 250r.

Contact Details:

Michaela Antonín Malaníková
Palacký University Olomouc
Department of History, Room 2.10 michaela.antoninmalanikova@upol.cz

Anna Molnár
University of Reading
ICMA Centre, Henley Business School a.molnar@henley.ac.uk

Co-funded by the European Union

Ministry of Education,
Youth and Sports
of the Czech Republic

Thursday, 14 May

09.00–09.30 Registration and Morning Coffee

09.30 Welcome
Lenka Křupková – Vice-Dean for Science and Doctoral Studies,
Faculty of Arts, Palacký University Olomouc

I. Concepts, Methods, and Frameworks

09.45 Michaela Antonín Malániková (Olomouc)
The concept of intersectionality in pre-modern urban history

10.20–10.40 Coffee Break

10.40 Christina Lutter (Vienna)
Better Concepts, Better Data, Better Stories: How Gendered was Social Capital in Medieval Vienna?

11.15 Anna Molnár (Reading)
The layered roles of women in the post-Black Death economic recovery

Discussant: Carina Siegl

12.00–13.00 Lunch (at own expense), Arts Centre of Palacký University (Konvikt)

II. Status, Wealth, and Economic Practice

13.00 Carina Siegl (Vienna)
Widows, Wives, and Women of the Cloister: Intersecting Social Roles and Women's Economic Agency in Late Medieval Vienna

13.35 Zrinka Nikolić Jakus (Zagreb)
Wealth, Status, and Solidarity: An Intersectional Analysis of Women's Wills in Late Medieval Zadar

14.10 Beata Mozejko (Gdańsk)
Women's economic activity in medieval Gdańsk: the case of nuns from nearby convents

Discussant: Anna Molnár

14.45–15.00 Coffee Break

III. Visibility, Property, and Urban Contexts

- 15.00 Verena Weller (Genoa)
Women, Wealth and Wills in Late Medieval Montpellier (13th–14th Centuries)
- 15.35 Ágnes Flóra (Cluj-Napoca)
“Do not oppress the widow.” Exploring widows’ economic contributions and roles in sixteenth-century Cluj
- 16.10 Matěj Kaftan (Olomouc)
Wives of Masters and Widows in Guild Organizations
- Discussant: Michaela Antonín Malaníková
- 16.45 End of the first day followed by a guided walking tour of the city

Friday, 15 May

IV. Women and Financial Instruments

- 09.00 Laura Peris (Cagliari)
Who Stayed in the Market? Women and the Public Annuities in Late Medieval Valencia
- 09.35 Tomislav Matić (Zagreb)
Good and Reputable Women: The Agency of Widows in Late Medieval Zagreb
- 10.10 Kateřina Lančová (Olomouc)
Between Visibility and Exclusion: Women’s roles in the shadow of men and the autonomy of widows in urban sources
- Discussant: Verena Weller
- 10.45–11.00 Coffee Break

Concluding Session

- 11.00 Christina Lutter (Vienna)
Concluding Keynote Presentation (with discussion)
- 12.00–12.30 Summary, concluding remarks, and practical information for next steps
- 12.45–13.45 Lunch