

CALL FOR PAPERS

University of West Bohemia, Faculty of Education, Department of History
warmly invites you to participate in an international conference

VLADISLAUS I, DUKE OF BOHEMIA, WEST BOHEMIA AND THE CZECH STATE DURING THE REIGN OF PŘEMYSLIDS

ON THE 900TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE VLADISLAUS I'S DEATH, THE FOUNDER OF THE KLADRUBY MONASTERY

10.-11. April 2025

Address:

University of West Bohemia, Faculty of Education, Department of History
Veleslavínova 342/42, 301 00, Pilsen 3 – Inner City, Czech Republic
Auditorium of the Faculty of Education, University of West Bohemia, VC-301, 3rd floor

Conference topics:

- Life, reign, family, foundation, historiography and didactic applications associated with the personality of the Vladislaus I. (* around 1070 - † 1125), Duke of Bohemia
- Political, Church, Cultural, Economic and Social History of the Czech state during the reign of the Přemyslid dynasty, including historiography and didactic use
- History of the West Bohemia in the Early and High Middle Ages

Invited speaker:

doc. Mgr. Robert Antonín, Ph.D. (University of Ostrava, Faculty of Arts, Department of History)

Conference languages:

Czech, Slovak, English

Conference registration instructions:

Please send the name and affiliation of the author, the title of paper and his brief abstract (500-800 characters) by December 31, 2024 to the e-mail address: mslep@khi.zcu.cz

Contact: PhDr. Martin Slepíčka, Ph.D. (mslep@khi.zcu.cz, +420 737 868 137)
doc. PaedDr. Naděžda Morávková, Ph.D. (moravkov@khi.zcu.cz, +420 777 207 171)

The organizers reserve the right to select papers. The conference fee is not collected. Accommodation and meals are provided by the conference participants themselves.

The professional output of the conference will be a peer-reviewed collective monograph. In case of obtaining grant, the book will be published in English.